PROFILE

Hi, I'm 'Ahmed Sabry' from Mansoura, Egypt. front end developer. Collaborating with me means: constant communication with team to support projects during all phases of delivery, having responsive usable site and after delivery, there will be close collaboration with other programming teams to monitor performance and correct front-end problems , I am available as a freelance web designer and would love to take up challenging projects.

Education

Bachelor of Arts Department of Philosophy [2015/2016]
Mansoura University.

Experience

FRONT-END DEVELOPER 2018 - PRESENT
As a Freelancer

Since beginning my journey as a designer and front-end developer, I've done a lot of designs and code beautifully simple things. I love what I do a lot. All you see here is my coding but not my idea, I trained on it. In fact, I do all these things and more. Also, I create beautiful sites, but I don't use it in my portfolio. I'm quietly person, confident, naturally curious, and working under pressure. All these things helps me to be a perfect designer for you.
